20	COME NOW THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, plaintiff herein, represented by 21	Assistant United States Attorney Gary G. Fry, and defendant Nguessan Yao, represented by 22	Raymond Levites. Esq., who is appearing pro hac vice , and Thomas Nolan, Esq., and file their
23	joint motion to continue the status hearing currently scheduled for March 28, 2011 at 9:00 a.m
24	At the request of the parties this coun	t set a status hearing for March 28, 2011. Since then,
25	as the court may recall from a recent motion to extend the discovery compliance date, the United
26	States has been preparing discovery and giving it to the defense. The problems we encountered
27	include digital documents produced by an ISP in response to a search warrant that we cannot 28	open, and a lengthy redacting process. The redactions are almost finished. We still have not solved the problem of the digital documents	. The ISP reports that they cannot provide them to us
	II

1 using another program. 2 For the foregoing reasons, both parties believe that there is currently no need for a status 3 hearing on March 28, 2011. The defense so far is satisfied with the pace of discovery, and the 4 prosecution is satisfied with the substantial efforts by the defense to familiarize themselves with 5 the case. We have been able to start efforts to negotiate a disposition. Both parties agree that a new date of April 25th, 2011, would be a reasonable new date. 6 7 Mr. Levites' office is in New York City. It will cost him time, and it will coast his client money. The parties agree that we do not need the current assistance of the court in resolving 8 anything. 9 10 The undersigned has discussed all this with the defense. They agree with the prosecution and authorized me to so inform the court. 11 12 Accordingly, both parties pray that this court grant an order continuing the status hearing to April 25, 2011, at 9:00 a.m., or such other date as may be convenient for the court. 13 14 Respectfully submitted, Date: March 24, 2011 15 MELINDA HAAG 16 United States Attorney 17 /s/18 GARY G.
